GREEK SITUATION OF POLITICAL AND MILITARY INTEREST

CAPTAIN SAYS SHIP HELD UP

London, Dec. 9.—A German war ship has succeeded in running the British cordon in the North Sea according to the report of a ship captain who says his vessel was held up and examined in the Atlantic. The vessel is not a converted merchant man, the captain said on his arrival here, but is a regular light cruiser.

The report from the log of this captain has become widely known in local shipping circles, and has caused widespread agitation for the conveying of merchant men.

VICTIMS OF U-BOATS

London, Dec. 9.—Lloyds reports the sinking of the Danish steamship Sigurd, 2,119 tons gross and of the British steamships Avistan, 3,188 tons; Conch, 5,620, and Tanfield.

Claim Senator Has Resigned

Huntington, W. Va., Dec. 9.—A despatch to a local newspaper from Washington, received today states Nathan Goff, Republican, senior West Virginia U. S. senator, has tendered his resignation to Governor H. D. Hatfield. The reason for Mr. Goff's withdrawal from office was not stated. His residence is at Clarksburg. In the event of the resignation being accepted, a successor could be chosen only by a special election called by the governor.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 9.—At Senator Goff's office here all knowledge of his reported resignation was disclaimed. The senator himself was out of the city for a day on private business.

AWARD CONTRACTS FOR AIRPLANES

Washington, D. C., Dec. 9.—Contracts for 86 high power hydro aeroplanes for the coast artillery stations in the United States, Hawaii, Philippines and the Panama Canal Zone were let today by the war department.

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way was very bashful of some one called a moral bankrupt and it did seem to her as if the poor fellow ought to be given credit for being moral even if he had lost his money.

U. S. PROTEST OF BELGIAN DEPORTATIONS UNHEEDED

Ohio Valley:—Generally fair, except rains or snows are probable Wednesday or Thursday. Cold first half of week. Warmer latter half.

Local Shoe Firm May Use Term "Scout"

Columbus, O., Dec. 9.—The Excelsior Shoe Co., of Portsmouth, may use the term "Scout" in its trade mark but cannot use the term "Boy Scout", Attorney General Turner ruled today in an opinion to Secretary of State Hildebrandt.

Ship Carried No Lights

Berlin, Dec. 9.—The German answer to the American inquiry regarding the sinking of the Seebeck has been dispatched to Washington. The steamer Seebeck, according to German information, was steaming without lights or any indication of its nationality in the immediate vicinity of a hostile naval port and there were no means of distinguishing it from an enemy warship.

The foregoing probably refers to the sinking of the vessel alluded to in a German admiralty statement of October 20 last, "the armed British transport Seebeck" sunk in the Mediterranean by a German submarine on October 12. It was assumed that the British steamer Seebeck of 4,601 tons gross, built in West Hartlepool in 1909, was the vessel in question.

OPEN WINDOW CAMPAIGN

Toledo, O., Dec. 9.—Local health authorities today began an open window campaign in a fight against pneumonia. Numerous cases of the disease have appeared recently and the action resulted from a conference of department officials. Fresh Air, the department says, will eliminate pneumonia to a considerable extent.

TO LEAD HARVARD

Ford Further Enjoined

Detroit, Michigan, Dec. 9.—The three circuit judges who heard the Dodge Brothers' injunction case today, extended for sixty days the temporary injunction restraining Henry Ford from using the profits of the Ford Motor Company to develop its business. The judges during this time will listen to further arguments and will then decide whether to grant a permanent injunction.

Several of the important points at issue were discussed by Judges Wiset, Hart and Chester, in their decision to extend the temporary injunction for 60 days.

The judges were not unanimous in their decision as to whether Ford could legally spend millions of his company's funds to construct and maintain blast furnaces. Ford announced some time ago that he planned to buy

Washington, D. C., Dec. 9.—

With publication of the American Protest to Germany on the deportations of Belgians, state department officials disclosed today the United States government has exhausted its means of diplomacy and has laid the case before American public opinion, from which it will expect to draw guidance for the next steps, if any be taken.

Germany's reply, conveyed in conversations with Charge Grew at Berlin by Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg, is that the deportations are regarded as justified on the grounds of social necessity. No actual reply in the form of a note has been received from Germany but no doubt has been left by the chancellor that the protest of the United States will not be heeded.

Official information was that the deportations are continuing. Publication of the protest was disclosed at the state department today to be for the purpose of placing the case before American public opinion. It was also revealed that publication of the document might be interpreted as unfriendly but that this contingency had been taken into consideration before it was given out.

The state department feels that it has gone far beyond the usual diplomatic bounds in its protest to Germany and that in a strictly conventional sense it had almost no right to discuss the matter at all with Germany as Belgium's interests in that country are represented by Spain and not by the United States. Consequently with all diplomatic procedure now admittedly exhausted the department has no other recourse than to give the facts to the public and leave the case with it.

Fighting West Of Chihuahua

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 9.—Government agents here announced today they had received reports from Juarez that fighting between the Carranza and Villa forces was in progress between Palomas and Fresno, west of Chihuahua. The fighting was said to have started yesterday morning and was resumed again this morning. The Carranza forces were said to have been in command of General Carlos Ozuna. Reinforcements were sent from Chihuahua City last night, according to this report.

The commission also urged upon the American government to invite European belligerents to create the basis upon which they would be willing to begin peace negotiations.

Bowyer here in a terrible wind and snow storm. The Bowyer narrowly escaped being sunk and had to be towed to dry dock for repairs. The Tell City escaped serious damage and proceeded on its trip to Pittsburgh.

WILL HOLD LADIES COURT

Columbus, O., Dec. 9.—Beginning Monday Judge Osborne, of municipal court will hold a session for "ladies only" every afternoon to accommodate women violators of the new traffic code of Columbus. Women protested against being arraigned with vags and drunks at the regular session of police court.

Speculators Are Blamed

Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 9.—The present shortage of cars is not due to a lack of equipment, but to speculators holding the cars loaded, and to increased business, asserted Arthur W. Thompson, of Baltimore, vice president of the B. & O. railroad, today.

Legislators Will Hold Meeting

Columbus, O., Dec. 9.—A caucus of Republican members of the new house of representatives of the Ohio Legislature will be called late in December, it was announced today. Reighard, A. C. Fleming, of Mahoning, and William P. Ellis, of Geauga county, are mentioned as possible candidates for the minority leadership. Otto Vollenweider, of Vinson county, is being given favorable consideration as the new Republican floor leader in the upper house.

COLUMBUS, O., DEC. 9.—A Democratic state legislative caucus will be held in Columbus December 28, it was announced today. At this caucus the organization of the house and senate will be agreed upon and patronage in the hands of the general assembly will be dispensed. Friends of Senator Lloyd, of Franklin county, are urging him for president pro tempore of the senate and chairman of the senate finance committee. Former Senator William Behne, of Bryan, is in the race for senate clerkship.

Decision On Motion In Test Case May Be Announced Monday

Washington, D. C., Dec. 9.—The supreme court is expected to announce next Monday its decision on the motion to expedite hearing of the Missouri, Oklahoma and Gulf railroad case testing the validity of the Adamson act. The court was not in session today. The justices, however, were to confer, and it was believed they would consider the motion. Indications point to assignment of the arguments the week of December 13.

BUTTER DROPS

Elgin, Ill., Dec. 9.—Butter dropped three cents today on the Elgin board of trade, which provides the basic price for the rest of the country. P. R. Millard, an agent of the department of justice, was present at the session with officers and members of the board in connection with the federal investigation into food prices. The price was 37 cents compared with 40 cents a week ago.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—In pursuing the inquiry into food prices United States District Attorney Clynne sent investigators to Elgin today to attend the meeting of the board of trade, which organization fixes the price of butter that is sold to govern largely sales throughout the country.

At the United States attorney's office it was said that the egg supply of Chicago is controlled by four men and that a duplicate set of books has been kept by several storage warehouses.

Wants Easier Method of Amending U. S. Constitution

Washington, Dec. 9.—A joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment for an easier method of amending the constitution was introduced today by Representative Chandler of New York.

It provides submission of any proposed amendment by a majority of the voters in a majority of the states. For ratification it would be necessary also to receive an aggregate majority of all votes cast in the United States. Conventions would be held every thirty years to consider proposed amendments. Mr. Chandler said the present method of amending the constitution is archaic, cumbersome and undemocratic.

NEW BRITISH CABINET TO BE NON-PARTISAN

London, Dec. 9.—George's office, with Lord Robert Cecil continuing as assistant. Lord Curzon qualified by former service in the foreign office and with a brilliant record as Indian viceroy, had been thought assured of the honor. Bonar Law for chancellor of the exchequer is a popular selection, as he combines business and political experience as do few other public men. Equal approval is given to Lord Derby as head of the war office and Dr. Addison as the minister of munitions, but the proposal of Sir Edward Carson for the admiralty finds less favor. Lord Curzon will have one of the highest posts and will be leader of the government in the House of Lords.

KING IS OPPOSED TO ALLIES

New York, Dec. 9.—The situation in Greece is not only again of decided political interest but potentially of marked military import in connection with the supposed purpose of the Central Powers to turn important sections of Field Marshal Von Mackensen's huge army in Rumania upon the entente's Saloniki army.

Correspondents in Greece report a persistently hostile attitude by King Constantine and the Greek royalists toward the entente and declare efforts are being made to gather a strong army in the Larissa region for an attack upon the entente forces from the rear simultaneously with attacks by the Teutonic allies from the north.

British military writers call attention to these contingencies, and decisive action with regard to Greece is urged in the interest of sound strategy and the safety of the entente forces in Macedonia.

Latest reports from the Rumanian campaign reflect the continued retirement of the Russo-Rumanian forces in Eastern Wallachia, with the figures of captures of men and materials by the invaders constantly growing. How far the advance of Field Marshal Von Mackensen may take him before the entente forces are able to reorganize themselves sufficiently to make an effort to hold him is by no means clear. It is considered probable, however, that not much, if any, of Wallachia will be left in Rumanian hands by the time a suitable defensive line is reached.

The line of the Danube river, which military commentators have picked as a likely one on which a stand may be made, is virtually the boundary between Wallachia and Moldavia, Rumania's northern province.

That there is every intention on the part of the Russians to maintain firmly the line along the western Moldavian frontier, to safeguard that province, is indicated by today's report from Petrograd of a Russian offensive in the Putna Valley region, on the frontier east of Kozli Vassahely. The announcement declares that the Austro-German forces were dislodged from two heights, losing 500 men in prisoners, one gun

COUNTY NEWS

The Friday afternoon session of the Farmers' Institute at Empire Grange opened at one o'clock with the Pine Creek Baptist church well filled. After music by the church choir, J. F. Gordon, one of the institute instructors, made an interesting and helpful talk on "The Business Side of Farming." Mr. Gordon made a success of his year's of farming by applying business methods. Discussion of the subject was led by John Shannon of Powellsville.

Henry Heer, of the Security Bank, Portsmouth, was next on the program. Mr. Heer gave a very interesting talk on "General Banking, or the Relation of the Bank to the Farmer." He explained in detail how banking had helped the farmer and why the farmer should make banking a part of his business.

"Leads in the Home" was the subject of Mrs. Florence Willison's address. Mrs. Willison knows pretty thoroughly the problems which confront the average woman and brings into her work a sympathy and a clear vision, which makes her an inspiration to those who attend her lectures.

The closing talk of the afternoon was made by Otto Zoellner, one of Wheelersburg's most prosperous farmers, who made a talk on general farming and grange work.

The Friday evening session opened at seven p. m. with the church choir furnishing the music. The inclement weather held down the attendance. A recitation by Claire Thompson was followed by an address on "Community Service" by J. F. Gordon, who handled the subject in a most pleasing manner.

A short address on farming in general was given by Alden Stalker of Pine Creek. Music was followed by a very interesting talk on "Looking Down the Ages," in which the speaker, Jas. A. Spear, state institute worker, told of the rapid strides made in farming and how farming conditions today are much different from those of fifty years ago.

Music was followed by recitations by Miss Flegg and Fred Meats, which brought the evening session to a close.

Saturday morning's session was opened by J. A. Spear giving an instructive address on "Why A Success and B. Fails in the Dairy Business." By cleanliness and the practice of improved dairy methods, Mr. Spear succeeded in keeping milk sweet for seventeen days. Gottlieb Pileh of near Powellsville led the discussion.

Lewis Smith of near Wheelersburg gave a talk on general farming. Music was followed by a talk on "Poultry" by J. F. Gordon. Mr. Gordon says "one must appreciate his work to succeed." Andrew Bill of Wheelersburg led the discussion and brought the session to a close.

In Memoriam

In memory of Mrs. Nora Journey Schwartz, who departed from this life Dec. 1, 1916, leaving a faithful husband, two darling babes and a kind, loving sister, also a father, two brothers and a host of friends to whom she will always be a cherished memory.

Not now, but in the coming years, It may be in the better land, We'll read the meaning of our tears, And there, sometime, we'll understand.

Yes, I am sure we will understand What here we do not know, Why this faithful wife and mother, Friend and sister had to go.

From the home she made so cheerful, From the babe, now motherless, From the little girl, so tearful, Who will miss her fond caress.

Gently Lord, oh, gently lead them Through life's great awful race, Till in Heaven Thou wilt bring them With that mother, face to face.

She has climbed the mountain railway, Has been over the bridge of strife, She had "Christ" as her Conductor, On this lightning train of life.

Has been over the bridge of strife, She had "Christ" as her Conductor, On this lightning train of life.

She has crossed the shining trestle, Spanning Jordan's swelling tide, Into that great Union Depot, Well we know her train and glide.

There she'll meet the Superintendent, Where beyond all toil and care, In that bright, eternal city, Palms of victory she shall wear.

Oh, our hearts seem crushed and broken, Deep in grief our spirits bend, Yet we know that Thou art with us, Will be with us till the end.

A LOVED ONE.

Scenic Wonders Of Yellowstone Park Are Repainted In Address

Bits of curious history, entwining picturesque Yellowstone National Park and a graphic description of the wonders of this famous spot, were given by Hon. Henry T. Bannan, in an illustrated lecture before a large audience at the First Presbyterian church Friday evening, following a sumptuous turkey dinner.

The dinner marked the beginning of a movement to effect an organization among the men of the church. This organization, when effected, will take an active part in all of the affairs of the church.

After the feast was served, Dr. W. D. Tremper, acting as toastmaster, introduced Dr. M. S. Bush, the pastor, who outlined a plan for the organization of a brotherhood, the purpose of which will be to stimulate the interest in the church and to assist in the Community Service movement. Dr. Bush announced that the organization would be launched following a series of evangelistic meetings to be started January 7 and lasting for a period of four days.

John A. Ives, Dr. S. D. Ruggles, Harry Smith and C. F. Lash each gave short talks, endorsing the proposed formation of a brotherhood.

The audience then retired to the auditorium, where Hon. Henry T. Bannan for more than two hours, painted beautiful word pictures of the wonders of the Yellowstone Park.

In the beginning, a brief history of the park was given. At first, this particular spot was clouded in obscurity, as the Indians were superstitious and afraid to enter the valleys where hissing cones vented boiling water every few minutes and boiling springs adjoined ice cold pools. It was a place where the Gods disported themselves, Mr. Bannan said.

When the Lewis and Clark expedition was returning a man named John Colter, thoroughly saturated with the glories of the vast expanse of the country, left the party and took up his abode in the park.

The hardships through which he passed and the many exciting experiences of this man were related by the speaker, surrounding the history of the park with an air of romance and adventure.

Then the subsequent visit of James Bridger and his return to the colonies along the Atlantic coast, where his stories of the wonders of this spot were hailed as incredulous. Being branded as the greatest liar of the age, Bridger proceeded to live up to the reputation and some of the stories told by him, formed one of the most interesting features of the lecture by Mr. Bannan.

As "Sagebrush Tourists," Mr. and Mrs. Bannan and children, Lewis and Miss Elizabeth, made the trip through the park last summer. Their experiences and the beauties they found were vividly portrayed. Great brown grizzly bears would come to their camp at night and attempt to make away with the provisions. Some of these animals are dangerous and most every year tourists are killed and badly injured.

The fair of the rainbow trout and the thrills accompanying the catching of them were described by Mr. Bannan. A trip to the top of Mount Washburn was portrayed. The beautiful expanse of wild, broken country as presented from this point is one of the wonders of the park, the speaker said.

The graded varieties of yellow, which splashed the rugged sides of the Yellowstone Canyon, from which the park derives its name, and the silent expanse of Yellowstone Lake passed in review under the masterful touch of the speaker.

The grandeur of the shifting, boiling mass of mud and the small bright paint pots, with their never-ending boiling and bubbling particles were deftly touched upon. Geysers and the cause and the bits of legends that surround them, came next.

The Morning Glory Lake, deriving its name from the colors which form almost a perfect flower and the unbelievable colors of the different lakes were portrayed.

Workman Falls 110 Ft. From C. & O. Bridge; Skull Crushed

George Miley, 36, structural iron worker, of Peebles, O., met instant death at one o'clock Saturday afternoon when he fell 110 feet from the top to the ties on the floor of the C. & O. Northern bridge that is being erected over the Ohio river at Sciotoville.

Miley was working on the top of most part of the bridge. He was on a top chord connecting some overhead parts when he lost his balance and fell. His head was the first part of his body to strike the ties, his skull being crushed, death being instantaneous. Fellow employees who heard him yell as he fell rushed to his side but the spark of life had already left the body.

Miley was considered one of the best structural iron workers in the employ of the McClintick-Marshall Company, contractors who are building the bridge. He had been working on the local job since work on the structural part was first started. Before coming to work at Sciotoville, Miley was employed on the Hill Gate job in New York.

He had also worked for the McClintick-Marshall Co. in Pittsburg. Mr. Miley has been separated from his wife for sometime who, with four daughters, resides in Peebles. The accident victim also leaves five brothers, John, Robert and Bayless of Peebles, Thomas of Clinton county, and James, who is manager of the H. Leet Lumber yard at Wheelersburg. He also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Julia Struman, of West Union, Mrs. Rebecca Murphy and Bessie Miley of near Peebles. Mr. Miley was in Peebles last Christmas.

Coroner J. W. Daehler was called and after reviewing the lifeless form had it removed to Daehler's morgue where it is being prepared for burial. Relatives of the victim in Peebles were notified over telephone by the McClintick-Marshall Co. The brother at Wheelersburg will look after the funeral arrangements.

Coroner Daehler gave a verdict of accidental death.

John Wilburn Arrested

That Captain W. J. Keyes intends to insist upon discipline in Company K ranks was shown again Saturday, when at his orders, he caused the arrest of John Wilburn for failure to attend drill without a reasonable excuse. Wilburn's right name is John M. Bauer, he having enlisted under his step-father's name. He recently wrote to the governor of the state asking for his discharge and in the letter made several uncomplimentary remarks concerning Captain Keyes.

Alleged Murderer Caught

Grover Kennedy, wanted here on a charge of killing Charles Hill, was arrested Friday evening at Point Pleasant, W. Va., by Sheriff E. W. Smith and was brought to the local jail. Last spring Hill wrote to Kennedy asking him to come to Sciotoville. He told him that he could get work on the C. & O. N. bridge. Kennedy came, according to the information received by the officers, and a few days later Hill became suspicious that Kennedy was intimate with his wife.

One afternoon Hill came home and found the two together on a houseboat at Sciotoville. In the quarrel that followed, Hill was fatally shot by Kennedy, who escaped and had been missing ever since.

THE MARKETS

REVIEW OF WEEK'S MARKETS

Chicago, Dec. 9.—Renewal of tension at Washington as to apparent German intentions of the agreement with the United States about submarine attacks have largely offset during the last couple of days the bullish effect that earlier this week in the wheat market was due to huge export sales. December delivery of wheat lost 3/4 cents in value as compared with a week ago, but deferred options scored gains of 1/2 to 3/4 cents. Corn advanced 1/4 to 3/4 cents for the week, and our shade of wheat. The outcome in provisions varied from 75 cents decline to a rise of 3/4 cents.

All eyes in the wheat trade turned quickly whenever developments appeared likely to increase or diminish the amount of export shipments from the United States. At first, the abandonment of the proposed sale of $50,000,000 of British and French treasury bills seemed to have put the bears at a decided disadvantage and there was much uneasiness regarding virtually unfounded reports that efforts had been made to cancel the purchase of millions of bushels of wheat intended for Great Britain. Lightening up of rates Monday overall money acted as a further handicap on the bulls, but Tuesday and Wednesday the friends of higher prices were greatly encouraged by immense foreign purchases credited in the main to Holland, Belgium and Greece. An announcement was also made that President Wilson would directly oppose any embargo on food stuffs.

Anxiety over the submarine issue with Germany dominated the wheat market on Thursday and Friday. Sentiment in favor of a decline in quotations received considerable impetus too from a likelihood that shipments from the United States to Greece would be stopped by an Anglo-French blockade. The intensification of the railway embargo east of Chicago formed another source of depression as the week drew to an end.

Corn and oats were bearishly affected by the approaching close of Lake navigation and the consequent restriction of eastern outlets. Besides, indications seemed to point in enlarged receipts soon as a result of a more liberal supply of railway cars in the west.

Increasing arrivals of hogs weakened provisions. In addition, there was said to have been a falling off in the sales of meats to the south.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Dec. 9.—Short selling and liquidation inspired by adverse reports dealing with export trade conditions and fears of untoward developments over the week and combine to bring about a general depression of quoted values in today's short but active session. Coppers were again the center of a concerted attack, losing 1 to 3 points, but leading industrial, equipment and shipping shares suffered in equal measure, with U. S. Steel at an extreme decline of over 2 points. Rails were relatively more steady, though Reading yielded almost 2 points. There were a few unimportant exceptions to the lower trend, with some substantial rallies in the later dealings. The closing was heavy. Bonds were lower. Total sales were estimated at 650,000 shares.

Irregular changes at today's opening resulted mainly from further selling of coppers and other issues recently under professional pressure. Trading was in moderate volume, representing in part the usual week's closing of outstanding contracts. The most noteworthy gain was made by Ajax Rubber which rose 5 1/2 points to the new record of 81. Marine preferred, Central Leather and Continental Can were included among the few other advances. Atlantic Gulf and West Indies, Marine, common, Gulf States Steel and Lee Rubber yielded 1 to 5 points. U. S. Steel made a trivial decline and rails were slightly lower.

WEEK'S REVIEW OF GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

New York, Dec. 9.—Call money at fifteen per cent, suggestion of another rupture with Germany, the British cable and the tenuous invasion of Romania were included among the important factors of an irregular and less active week in the stock market.

The rise in call loans to the highest rate in three years proved only temporary, being almost immediately relieved by further heavy gold imports from Canada. Settlement in the British political situation was reflected in the low records established by international bonds notably Anglo-French 5's and City of Paris 5's.

Purchase by an international banking house of a large block of foreign oil stock to be converted into shares of dollar denomination for sale in this market pointed a new increasing power and prestige in finance.

The recent inquiry for shares of reorganized railroads attained wider proportions with many substantial gains, especially in western and southwestern roads. Shipping stocks also registered gains, impetus being given to that group by the comprehensive plans now under way for an extension of the American merchant marine.

Public buying of United States Steel and affiliated and industrial was met by considerable professional selling, similar conditions apply to the metal issues, some of which last ground on rumors indicating a revision of plans regarding proposed consolidations or mergers. Fabricated steel and iron attracted new high prices and refined copper more than held to recent record quotations. Specialties such as sugars, tobacco, rubbers and petroleum moved according to the energies of pools and speculators, but actual conditions in the industries represented by the stocks continue highly favorable.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, Dec. 9.—Increased dangers to ocean shipping and the continuance of railway embargoes put wheat prices today on the down grade. Opening prices, which rose from the same as yesterday's finish to 1/2 cent lower, with May at 1.74 1/4 to 1.75 1/4 and July at 1.74 1/4 to 1.75 1/4 were followed by a sharp decline all around, and then something of a reaction.

The close was strong 2 to 2 1/2 not higher, with May at 1.74 1/4 to 1.75 1/4 and July at 1.74 1/4 to 1.75 1/4.

Corn declined 1/2 cent, owing to scarcity of rural offerings. After opening unchanged to 5/8 cent lower, prices opened unchanged to 5/8 cent lower, prices opened unchanged to 5/8 cent lower.

The close was strong at 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 cent advance.

Oats paralleled the action of corn, higher quotations on logs tended to strengthen provisions.

Columbus, O., Dec. 9.—Several good bouts attracted the attention of fight followers in different parts of the country last night. At Milwaukee, Ritchie Mitchell defeated Joe Rivers, of California, in a ten-round bout. Gas Christie, Milwaukee middleweight, earned a decision in fifteen rounds at Dayton against Battling Levinsky. Chick Hayes, of Indianapolis, lost to Roger O'Malley, of Toledo, in the eighth round of a fifteen-round bout at Sandusky. Irish Patsy Clue easily defeated Barney McGuire, of Johnston, at that city in a ten-round bout.

TAILOR WANTS TO GO TO INFIRMARY

Broken in health and spirits, with no relatives or close friends to turn to for assistance, George Scott, a veteran tailor, of No. 619 Second street, appealed to the police Saturday to have him committed to the county infirmary. Sergeant John Smith promised "Scotty" as he is most familiarly known, to take up the matter with the public safety department officials. He started a stove fire for him in a rear room of his tailor shop, where he has been sleeping on a cot, and told him to remain there until he could get in touch with the officials. The man had had practically nothing to eat for several days. He is a native of Scotland and at one time enjoyed a good patronage in Portsmouth.

Here's One Feature In Reo the Fifth That Will Save You The Price of the Car

IF YOU COULD ESTIMATE the probable cost to you in the life of an automobile—or in the first five years—of crank shaft troubles and the other troubles that result from them, you'd find it would amount to fully that much in the case of some cars.

WE MEAN, OF COURSE, all those troubles and expenses that are indirectly as well as directly the result of loose or misaligned crank shaft bearings.

THAT OLD, OLD ADAGE—so old one hesitates to quote it, yet applicable to so many cases—"a stitch in time saves nine"—applies with singular force to an automobile engine.

HOW OFTEN have you known neglect to make an adjustment at the moment the necessity was apparent, to run into the most serious troubles and the most outrageous repair bills. How often!

OF COURSE YOU MEAN to do it "at the first opportunity" and you resolve each morning you start out, that you'll leave the car at a garage and have it done—or do it yourself when you get home. But—

IT ISN'T DONE because of the time it would take to do it—in the average car.

IF THERE'S PLAY in your main engine bearings, you know it is serious—and it is liable to become more serious any moment.

BUT YOU ALSO KNOW it will take time—a lot of time—and you need the car. Don't feel as if you can spare it "today." So it runs along.

THIS REO FEATURE enables you or any handy man to adjust, with the simple socket wrench shown (and 10 or 15 minutes), the main crank shaft bearings in your Reo motor.

THE OPERATION IS SIMPLE—and getting at it is simpler.

YOU DON'T NEED to remove the motor from the frame as in other cars. Even the hand-hole plates—just the drip-pans—two minutes—and you are there.

IF YOU HAD IT ON A STAND, upside down, you couldn't do it any better, or make a more accurate alignment of the crank shaft.

WITH THE MOTOR and all parts in normal running position, you can feel, by turning it, the slightest "bind" or "play," and you can obtain an absolutely uniform contact in the bearings and a perfect alignment of the crank shaft from end to end.

AND YOU KNOW how important that is. YOU KNOW TOO HOW RISKY such an operation is in the hands of the average garage repair man, with only the average tools.

THIS IS ONLY ONE of many features that no Reo—and exclusively Reo—that are not going to tell you about in a short course of Reo ads.

THEY EXPLAIN the reason for the low up-keep of Reo the Fifth.

MEANTIME, let us suggest that your order should be in our hands at once if you'd have a Reo the Fifth and get it at the present price—$875 f. o. b. factory.

Cut shows this Reo feature (size)

The operation is simple. Bolt-heads project below crank case. Just drop off the drip-pan—held by spring clips precisely the same as those that lock the hood. Slip socket wrench up over both concentric bolts. Turn to left a fraction. Slip wrench down so it engages only the head of the inner bolt. Tighten. The outer bolts form the stops against which you draw, with the inner bolts, the bearing cap. A perfect adjustment can be made in minutes where on any other car hours would be required. And best of all, it is so easily and quickly done, you'll do it, where otherwise you'd put it off from time to time.

The Intrinsic Value of Diamonds Makes Them An Ideal Christmas Gift

No matter what other gifts are received, Diamonds always please the most. The everlasting beauty and ever-increasing value make a Diamond something distinctly worth having. Let us help you make your selection.

When you buy groceries or furniture you can look at the article and tell about what you are getting. Not so with a diamond, unless you are an expert. There might be a slight imperfection or it might be off color and you never know it. This small defect might make a difference of a good many dollars. It is here the unscrupulous dealer takes advantage. You should therefore make your Diamond purchases of a dealer of established reputation for honesty and reliability. It is universally known that one is absolutely safe in taking the word of J. F. Carr for it is good as a bond.

We have an especially attractive line of Diamond La Vallieres and Pendants. We have them in solid gold, set with real cut Diamonds at $8.00 and $8.75. Specials at $12 and $20 very fine platinum. Prices up into the hundreds of dollars. With special values at $25.00, $50.00, $75.00 and $100.00. See them in our window.

"Up To The Minute"

is the motto that all our Bracelet Watches are guaranteed and will follow. Our customers tell us that we have the largest selection of these watches in the city. We show these in round, square, octagon and oval, in yellow, green, white gold and platinum. Plain and engraved. Prices ranging from $8.00 to $100.00 with special values in Elgin Bracelet Watches at $10.00, $12.50, $15.00. See them in our window.

Men's Watches

All the leading makes are found in our stock—Waltham, Elgin, Hamilton, Howard, Hampden, Illinois. Come early and let us help you select your gift. This has always been known as "The Store of Gift Inspiration," and we most cordially extend an invitation to one and all to make us an early visit, so that all goods may be properly engraved and can be delivered to you on any date you may designate.

too hot. Then drop in the chicken. Let it simmer slowly until all is hot through. Cut a pod of hot pepper in two this, then add boiling water enough just to cover the chicken. Put cover on and let simmer slowly and keep stirring about every fifteen minutes until chicken is tender. If sauce gets too thick, add a little more water, always boiling. When done spread on a large platter and sprinkle grated Italian cheese over it. This will be found to be an excellent dish to those who like Italian cooking.

Dear Miss Wise—How should you tell a girl that you love her? BEN. If you really love her you will find a way to express it. A girl would rather hear "I love you" from a man who really means it than anything on earth. But if he doesn't really mean it he might just as well say, "Let's go over to the drug store."

I am printing a recipe for chicken cooked Italian style, which Mrs. A. P. has so kindly sent in answer to the request a few days ago.

Dear Miss Wise—Here is one way to cook chicken Italian. There are so many ways to cook Italian dishes. This recipe calls for a grown chicken. Clean and cut in small pieces. Salt and pepper it, then peel two large onions and one bunch garlic. Cut them fine in a dish. Put sauce pan on very slow fire. Cook spoon of lard. When it is good and hot, sift cook spoon of flour in and stir constantly until brown, then drop in onions and garlic. Let them brown nicely. Be sure to not have the fire and buy an ice cream soda." In fact, he had much better make the soda water offer if he isn't serious about loving her.

Dear Dolly—Will you please tell me how to make French chocolate caramels.

BETTY.

Two ounces or squares of chocolate, 1-2 pound brown sugar, 1 ounce or two (tablespoons) butter, 1-2 cup water, 1 cup cream, 1 tablespoon corn syrup (rounded).

Put the water on the chocolate and very gently heat it until melted. Pour off the water and beat the chocolate smooth. Put the sugar, butter, syrup and cream in another pan and cook gently, stirring until it has simmered for 10 minutes. Add the chocolate and cook to 250 degrees or the quite hard ball stage, stirring constantly but very gently. Pour into a buttered slab or pan and when cold cut into squares.

SOCIETY

Beautiful in all the details was the pink and white luncheon with which Miss Teresa Kennedy entertained this afternoon at one o'clock, complimentary to Miss Hazel Drew, fiancée of Mr. Robert Miller Adair, of Columbus. Covers were laid at the prettily appointed table for Miss Hazel Drew, Mrs. Irving Drew, Mrs. S. D. Ruggles, Mrs. Chester Lloyd, Mrs. Albert Marling, Mrs. Everett Drew, Miss Gladys Stults, of Morris-town, N. J., Mrs. O. M. Shumway, Mrs. Starling Pearce, of Indianapolis, Ind., Mrs. Charlie Nichols, Miss Marjorie Pursell, Miss Gertrude Schmidt, Mrs. Wade S. Kennedy and Miss Kennedy. The delicious menu was beautifully served, the table being adorned with a French basket of pink roses and ferns. Dainty curds marked the places, and the favors were pink crepe paper baskets filled with almonds. The afternoon was spent in music and needlework.

Thief Held Here Wanted In Michigan; Stole 100 Autos?

The police received a telegram Friday night from the Michigan state prison authorities at Jackson, confirming reports that J. L. Wills, alias Carr, alias Holland, suspected motorcycle thief under arrest here, is wanted there.

The message stated that Wills was wanted for violation of parole and that an officer would be sent after him at once to take him back to the Jackson penitentiary, where he served sentence for incest. A photograph also received from the Michigan authorities show the man in custody here to be the same person.

Wills proved his own undoing by displaying a disposition to talk with fellow prisoners at the police station. He confided to them that he was a parole violator and was wanted at Jackson, Mich. Acting upon a tip one of the prisoners gave them the police promptly wired to Jackson.

Wills also boasted to the other prisoners that he had stolen fully 100 automobiles in different parts of the country. He also told them of having disposed of several stolen cars in Portsmouth.

When questioned by the police officials Wills was careful not to incriminate himself. He claimed that the motorcycle, which he is accused of stealing, was purchased by him in Kentucky. The motorcycle belonged to R. E. Hughes, a young farmer of Prospect, Marion county, Ohio.

The police officials firmly believe that Wills has a Ford car somewhere in Portsmouth right now which he had expected to dispose of, but he is too smooth to reveal its hiding place. A local dealer who dropped around at headquarters Friday evening to take a look at the prisoner, recognized him as a man who had been in his place several times for automobile parts.

The Michigan authorities also informed the police that Wills served two years in the Frankfort, Ky., penitentiary for horse stealing. He was discharged from that prison in March, 1908, and paroled from the Michigan prison April 17, 1916. He has a sister living in Huntington but all of his other relatives now reside at Goshen, Cal.

Wills has admitted to the police that he was in Portsmouth during the Korn Carnival and that he had a Ford automobile, which he said he sold to a man in Kentucky, whose name he did not know.

The police believe that Wills knows something about the disappearance of the touring car stolen from Will Horry and the Ford car of John W. Bahner, at East End real estate man.

The Marion, O., police chief was here Friday to take Wills to the city on the motorcycle theft. He was told that the Michigan authorities had first call on him.

Attendance Contest Growing In Interest

Charles M. Howland, superintendent of the First Christian Bible School, received a letter, the first of this week, from the superintendent of the Bellefontaine Christian bible school, admitting that while the local school had won the first round of the three months attendance contest, that the Bellefontaine folks expected to even up the score tomorrow. The weather was the reason given for such a low attendance last Sunday, when the First Christian won with ease. It rained hard all morning in the up-state town and this cut into the attendance quite heavily. The Bellefontaine superintendent, however, should be reminded that the weather was not so propitious down this way but that it takes more than a little water to dampen the ardor and enthusiasm of the members who workshop at Third and Gay streets. The local members are of the opinion they have the jump on Bellefontaine, but they should not be so confident, for at one time Bellefontaine reported an attendance of more than 3000, and they may try to duplicate that stunt. In the meantime the local Sunday School had better be on their guard. One way to clinch victory for tomorrow will be to have 800 present, a small enough number, indeed.

Rev. Oakley promises two strong sermons for tomorrow. One will be delivered at 10:30 a. m. and the other at 7 p. m. You are cordially invited to be present at any and all services. Subject for the morning sermon: "Working on Shares"; evening subject, "Seeing God." Splendid music at all services.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in the system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headache, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a few days and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the natural substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. (Baldwin's) All druggists.

Recital Is Pleasing

Standing room was at a premium Friday evening at the high school, when the fourth number of the high school lecture course was presented by the Cord-Rummel Recital Company.

The company consisted of Fay Cord as soprano, William Morris Rummel, violinist, Henry Kelley, baritone, and Mrs. W. M. Rummel, accompanist. The baritone selections by Mr. Kelley and soprano solos by Miss Cord were among the best ever heard in Portsmouth. "Nay, Bid Me Not Resign, Love," from Don Giovanni, a duet number by Miss Cord and Mr. Kelley brought rounds of applause. The violin selections by Mr. Rummel contained such numbers as "Menuetto," "Moment Musical," and "Humoresque." The next number will be given Friday, February 9, by Henry A. Adrian, the Luther Burbank man, an entertaining lecturer.

The artists in last night's recital made complaint that they were greatly discommoded by the noises made in arranging chairs, opening and shutting windows and by the conversations carried on by some of the audience.

One of the patrons has asked The Times to urge that hereafter all in the audience endeavor to keep quiet.

The concrete work of the bridge for Milldale Road and the grading of the street from Stewartville across the head of Munn's Run is almost completed. If you are interested in securing an attractive location for a home at a very, very reasonable price, do not buy before investigating Milldale with its miles of new pikes and beautiful location for homes at low prices; above all floods and convenient to all industries by street car lines. Adjoins New Boston.

CLYDE KRONK GIVES UP HIS LIFE BUT SAVES BOY

Auto Goes Into Lake At Millbrook Park, All Occupants Saved But Rescuer Is Drowned

To save the life of Arnold Sizemore, aged 9, Stewartsville, Clyde Kronk, 28, married, well known farmer and storekeeper, Harrisonville, plunged into the icy waters of Millbrook lake, near the concrete bridge on Gallia pike at New Boston Saturday morning about 10:30 o'clock and was drowned. Through his heroism the lad was saved.

The drowning occurred a few moments after the big A. W. Adams bakery truck had skidded, while enroute to this city and had swerved into the wooden fence along the south side of the pike, broke through and plunged into 30 feet of water. A. W. Adams, owner of the bakery, Carl Garey, 18, New Boston, the driver of the machine, and Arnold Sizemore, a small boy from Stewartsville, were in the automobile when the accident occurred. All three were hurled out of the car when the machine struck the water.

Clyde Kronk had been over to the general store which L. C. McGuire keeps in Lakeside to buy a cow. While there the Adams bakery truck came up and delivered some bread and confectionery. Kronk, who had his Ford touring car at the store, asked McGuire, William Brown and J. V. Miller to go over to New Boston with him.

The Adams truck started back to Portsmouth with Kronk and his party following. As the truck neared the concrete bridge across Millbrook lake, it skidded on some mud, and then plunged into the lake on the south side of the road. Kronk brought his machine to a halt and then went over to the place where the truck took its plunge. Adams, Garey and the boy were floundering about in the icy waters.

Goes To Aid of the Boy

McGuire, Brown and Miller started to lend assistance to Adams and Garey. Kronk jumped into the cold water and went after the boy, whose pitiful cries could be heard for several hundred yards. The lad was reached, then both the man and boy sank. Coming up a few seconds later the boy was seen wildly clutching Kronk about the neck.

McGuire took a spike pole and got hold of the lad. While McGuire and others were getting the boy to the shore Kronk disappeared.

T. H. Sprinkle and Talmadge Jones, who had been attracted to the scene by the shouts went over on the north side of the lake, securing a skiff returned to the place where the body of Kronk was last seen. Then Sprinkle began probing with a long pole and soon located the body. He hooked the body and brought it to the surface.

Body Brought To The Shore

The unfortunate man's body was brought to shore and placed upon some planks where it was left until the arrival of Coroner J. W. Daehler.

Adams was unconscious when rescued. He was taken to a nearby store where his clothing was removed and dried. Sizemore was went into the lake. I think I was thrown out after we got into the lake for I was under the car. I climbed out on top and someone got me out."

Shortly after the accident Mrs. Adams was notified and went to the scene. She took some dry clothing to her husband.

Dr. J. W. Daehler held Kronk's death was due to accidental drowning. The remains were taken to the Daehler mortuary where it will be prepared for burial.

Will Send Facts To Carnegie Commission

In connection with the heroism displayed by Kronk, Dr. Daehler said that he intended to send the details of the drowning to the Carnegie Hero Medal Commission.

"In the face of a strong cold west wind, with all his clothes on and without regard for his life, Kronk went in there to save the boy. He succeeded in saving the boy and then was drowned. I think that is about the finest instance of heroism I have ever heard of," said Dr. Daehler.

A. W. Adams, proprietor of the Adams bakery, said that the machine skidded and went into the fence and plunged into the lake. He attempted to save both Garey and Sizemore and was almost drowned himself. He pulled Garey from beneath the machine, while in the water, and then lapsed into unconsciousness.

Saturday afternoon Mr. Adams was still at New Boston. Together with E. L. Anderson and several assistants, plans for raising the machine out of the water were made and work started on it.

Clyde Kronk, who so gallantly lost his life to save a boy whom he did not know, was 28 years old. Most of his life has been spent in this county. Through his thrift and initiative he built up a general store at Harrisonville.

Was Married Only Six Months Ago

Just six months ago he was married to Miss Florence Mougey, daughter of George Mougey, near Harrisonville.

He was a son of Mrs. Joseph Kronk, who resides near Harrisonville on a farm. Five brothers and one sister survive the unfortunate young man. They are: Frank, of Jackson county; Charles, who is in the west; John and Ora, of near Harrisonville; Leslie, at home; and Mrs. Ella Powell, Harrisonville.

For several years Mr. Kronk conducted a butcher business in connection with his general store. He purchased stock in all parts of the county and had a large trade in this city.

TO THE PUBLIC:

In response to numerous inquiries as to why we did not use the Langmuir in an effort to revive Clyde Kronk, who was drowned in Millbrook lake this morning, I will say we had the Langmuir there, but the coroner would not allow us to use it.

THE ALL SAINTS BROTHERHOOD

The Brotherhood of All Saints' church will hold its second meeting of the year on Sunday morning at 9 a. m. in the rectory's office. Now is the time to turn over a new leaf and to try to get the habit of regular attendance once more. The rectory will continue his lecture on "Church and State in the First Three Centuries." All men are eligible for membership in the Brotherhood. If you are not at present attending a Bible class for men we shall be glad to see you.

REVELATIONS AT TRINITY

The Trinity Men's Bible class church union practical? Should Sunday morning will tackle a subject that has been a bone of contention to practically all Bible students down through the ages, and that is Revelations. There are some pretty pronounced views held by some of the members and they will be privileged to express them in the class. Some of the questions to be discussed are: How many of the seven cities referred to have strong Christian churches today? What is meant by Satan's throne? Is it

you. While all who come to us are welcome, we are not primarily concerned in collecting a crowd, but rather in doing solid constructive work with men who are willing to spend an hour in profitable study. The discussions of the lesson at the Brotherhood are invariably of a high order and the work accomplished compares favorably with that of the average college or university. The rectory's office is opposite the Parish House on Fourth street, near Court.

M. W. of A. Initiates

Local German's View Of European War

(Written by Louis F. Korth, former Editor of The Correspondent.)

Friday, December 8, 1916.

Bucharest has fallen and the Central Powers are today masters in the Balkans. General Mackensen's forces under General Kossch, the Danube army, entered the city on Wednesday after encircling it in conjunction with those of General Falkenhayn from three directions, leaving the Rumanians only one road open for retreat.

The first Rumanian army, which was defeated at Hermannstadt in the early part of the campaign, but reorganized, made a stand on the Arges river (Argeș) west of Bucharest to protect the capital but was beaten again in a two days battle, and General Kossch crossed the river with the Silesians and Prussian Poles on a broad front from Oltenita to Rudeseni, marched by the powerful forces, which did not fire a shot, probably to save the city from a useless bombardment, and entered Bucharest from the southwest without further fighting.

The Rumanians had evacuated it and retreated northward to Ploesti on the Bucharest-Kronstadt road, where the Moldavians from Jassy and Galatz turned in. As the capture of Ploesti and the fall of the army of General Kossch, the victor of Torgu-Jul and Krajova, and of General Krath, coming from west and north, occurred simultaneously with that of Bucharest a large part of the Rumanian rearguard must have been captured but the main army escaped, probably to the Russian river.

It is supposed that it will take a new defense line here or retreat further to the Sereth river, where it may join hands with the Russian Pruth army. If Mackensen's cavalry will give it time to do so. The Germans and Austrians owe their remarkable success largely to swiftness and endurance in their marches, making on the average 20 miles a day, and it is again rapidly in retreat and pursuit which will win on the long stretch.

In entering Bucharest the German, Austro-Hungarian and Bulgarian forces have finished a brilliant campaign and taken the third entente capital, Brussels, Elgrad, Bucharest, not counting Constantinople, Papa Nikitsa, and against anarchy and riot the Germans at once established a military administration for the whole of Middle and Western Wallachia. Further plans Hindenburg, and Mackensen, who now has command of all the forces in the Balkan, have in their secret but it is almost certain that Moldavia will be the next field of operations. And rumors have it that Austria is going to start a campaign in Albania to indirectly help Greece.

According to Berlin despatches the Germans occupy more than 50,000 square miles of territory in Rumania, twice as much as they do in France. Besides the land enormous quantities of grain and herds of cattle, the oil regions with their vast stocks of crude and refined product, the coal and iron mines fell into their hands. The Germans can laugh at the British blockade now. The number of prisoners taken during the Rumanian campaign from Tuturkai to Bucharest is estimated at 150,000.

The fact that the Germans captured eight 21 cm. Krupp Mortars in Rosh de Vede (Rosioru on the Voda) shows that the Rumanians were not able on their retreat to save their heavy ordnance, which they so badly needed for the defense of Bucharest.

Captured high Rumanian officers charge their allies with failure of furnishing them sufficient war material.

In Dobruja all Rumanian forces have been replaced by Russians. They made an attack on the Bulgarian left wing on Tuesday between Satskici and the Danube but were repulsed. The Bulgarians followed them up to their works and by a successful counter-stroke gained possession of those east of Tonal. This shows that they not only hold their own on the Tchernavoda-Constanza line but possess sufficient offensive power for thrusts on the enemy.

In an order of the day, issued November 26, at Medgidie, General Mackensen conveys the Emperor's thanks to the soldiers of the Dobruja army for the victories at Dobriez, Tuturkai, Silistria, Musubey, Aplan, Tuzla, Rascova, Toraissar, Cobadin, Constanza, Tchernavoda, Trajanovwall and Northern Dobruja. Here are a dozen victorious battles, of which the cable has disposed with little more than a line or two.

General Arz is bravely holding his own in the Moldavia frontier region against superior forces and so does General Kereess in the Southern Carpathians, where the Russians and Rumanians are now making mighty efforts to break through the passes into Hungary. In the Ludova region four heavy Russian attacks were repulsed and in the Protus Valley the Russians were held on the second line after breaking the first.

Paris claims of big Serbian successes on the Gerna head in the Monastir region are offset by later Sofia reports of the recapture of the lost positions by the Bulgarians. They also repulsed a British attack in the Struma sector on the same front (Macedonia) and took some prisoners.

which much blood was shed last summer.

Joseph Pogany, the well known Austro-Hungarian war correspondent, in a review of General Cadorna's last offensive, written from personal observation, gives a vivid description of the big battle in the Vallone Valley, which in his opinion surpassed in intensity the turning point in the Somme campaign. They attacked there twenty-three times without result and always with masses of new well-rested troops. The iron wall remains unshaken.

On Tuesday the British attempted to advance on the road from Albert to Warlen Court and Bapume but were driven back. London says, operations on the Somme have been impeded by heavy fogs.

On the left bank of the Meuse (Verden) the Germans have captured the summit of the famous height 304, for the possession of which much blood was shed last summer.

The Portuguese, which invaded German East Africa next to their territory, have been driven out again. They were besieged by the Germans in their fort for twelve days and only escaped capture by a night sortie, according to a statement given by Premier Almeida in the Portuguese chambers on interpellation.

The Portuguese minister of marine has telegraphed to Lisbon that the French gunboat Surprise with a crew of thirty-four has been sunk by German submarines off Funchal on the island of Madeira.

The French admiralty admits the loss of the big battleship Suffren, 12,750 tons, with 730 men in the Mediterranean.

The situation in Greece remains unsettled. King Constantine turned over six mountain batteries to the French, which they are in need of in the Western Macedonia hills, but refused further concessions. The French garrison was withdrawn from Athens after the bloody fight with the Greek troops last week but clashed between Venizelists and loyal Reservists are of daily occurrence. The Allies have established a blockade of all Greek ports, which amounts to a declaration of war.

The Bulgarian Premier Radoslavoff has submitted proof to his parliament that Rumanian offered to return Dobruja to Bulgaria as the price for joining the Allies or remaining neutral, a Sofia cable states.

Old England is shaking in her boots today, the entire united and disunited kingdom from the St. Georges Channel to the Humber, from the Guernsey to the Orkney Islands. Things are going wrong for her on the continent and dissensions about the conduct of the war have widened the breach in the cabinet to the point where it split.

Premier Asquith, who was at loggerheads with War Minister David Lloyd George, the strongest man in the cabinet, about the reduction of the war council from nine to three members, has resigned.

The strife between the two over important war and home questions has not only affected the cabinet and council but also parliament and people, who are fearing a military dictatorship, as Lloyd George demands that the small war council shall have unlimited powers.

King George is trying to bridge over the trouble. He has dropped Asquith and charged Lloyd George with the formation of a new coalition cabinet, in which neither Asquith nor Grey, the men responsible for Britain's declaration of war on Germany, will have a place. Sir Asquith's liberal colleagues will step out with him.

The Cologne Gazette says: "The resignation of Premier Asquith confirms the failure of his policy. His war to the hilt successor will have the privilege of playing the last card but not trumps."

Northcliffe's Daily Mail lays the failure of English diplomacy in the Balkans entirely to Grey and Asquith. It says: "The fall of the Rumanian capital is due before all else to the colossal blunders of Lord Grey."

We hear from Petrograd by way of Stockholm that the revolt in the Russian Duma against the Stuermer-Sassanoff regime, which brought about Stuermer's fall, was started by the progressists' leader Prof. Miljutin with an attack on the financial alliance with England, by which Russia was "gagged, robbed and humbled," as he expressed it.

Now the new Premier Trepoff in order to counteract the effect of the revolt has proclaimed, he has it in black and white that Russia's price of the bargain is to the Constantinople and the Bosphorus.

The Duma did not respond. The liberal block, which was to be port Karnak with troops for Saloniki on board has been sunk by a German submarine in the Mediterranean near the island of Malta.

In October and November German submarines sank 42 ships with contraband near Archangel in the Arctic Sea.

"Coal is up to $10 a ton in Paris and so scarce that most folks go without any fire," says Mrs. S. E. Morris, widow of the late U. S. Consul-General Morris, who is on a visit to Cincinnati. Butter is selling at 75 cents, eggs are from 60 to 80 cents, according to quality, milk is 15 cents, etc.

CATARRR LEADS TO CONSUMPTION
Catarrh is as much a blood disease as scrofula or rheumatism. It may be relieved, but it cannot be removed by simply local treatment. It breaks down the general health, weakens the lung tissues, and leads to consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla is so successful in the treatment of catarrh that it is known as the best remedy for this disease. It purifies the blood. Ask your druggist for it.

P. H. S. "Floor Squad" Opens Season By Beating Waverly

Local Quintet Had To Exert Themselves
To Turn The Trick

P. H. S.'s 1916-17 basketball five won their first game of the season Friday evening when they beat the Waverly high school quintet by a score of 31 to 23.

The Red and Blue team returned home disappointed because they did not run up a bigger score, but claim that when Waverly plays on the local floor they will outdo them. The locals claim they were not dealt with fairly by Dr. Metzger, coach of the Waverly team who refereed the game. In the first half of the game he called 7 fouls on Shumway, P. H. S. guard who is one of the most careful players in the game. A number of fouls were called on other players and eleven of the 23 points made by Waverly were on fouls.

P. H. S. had 7 chances to score on fouls and Guy Edwards, local forward, playing his first P. H. S. game, shot all 7, the ball not touching the rim of the basket. Edwards played a star game and has won a regular position on the first team. The game was hard fought, the locals having to fight hard for every point.

Between halves Coach Trent of the locals had a conference with Referee Metzger and after showing the Waverly coach the rule book the second half of the game was played without fouls being called on the locals. The Waverly boys after the game, admitted that P. H. S. had not been given a fair chance by the referee who is a new man at Waverly.

Bauman, captain of the locals, started the season by making seven field baskets. The lineups:

Will Marry

Leo Hoenschmeyer, of Cincinnati, who is known as Lee Magee in the baseball world, is another of Cincinnati's basketball stars who will soon join the ranks of the marrieds. The secret of Magee's engagement to Miss Beatrice Rodgers of Cincinnati became known several days ago at a gathering of friends at the York Lodge country home near Englewood, Ky.

Fulton Must Meet Moran

Chicago, Dec. 9.—Fred Fulton, who came here yesterday seeking a match with Jess Willard, will go to Milwaukee today in the hope of arranging for a fight with Frank Moran. Tom Jones, Willard's manager, told Fulton that Moran would have to be put out of the way before the champion would consent to meet Fulton.

24 ROUNDS OF BOXING
NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Local lovers of real boxing are going to have their fists appetites satisfied next Wednesday in Distel hall when Promoter Barney Furey will stage a boxing show comprising 24 rounds all for 75 cents and $1.

Dave Fambry of Cincinnati, who recently won from Buck Kennedy of this city and Matty Callip of Columbus, will be the principals in the main go of 10 rounds. They will weigh in at 135.

The second bout will be an eight round affair between Joe Berger of Newport, Ky., and Eddie Jenkins of Sciotoville. The third bout will be between Hi Walker of New Boston and George E. Murphy of Columbus. This will be a six round affair.

Promoter Furey will act as referee.

Memorable Battle Recalled Today

John L. Sullivan pulled a big surprise party on the sporting world 28 years ago today by calling at a New York newspaper office and depositing the $5,000 as financial backing for his challenge to Jake Kilrain.

John L. had long refused to fight Jake, although Kilrain had issued repeated challenges, and the impression had gone abroad that the Bostonian was afraid of his rival.

The previous year Kilrain's admirers had presented him with a belt said to be emblematic of the world's heavyweight championship.

John Smith, the English champion, then challenged Jake, and they fought 105 rounds in France, Kilrain having the best of it, although it was called a draw.

New York, Dec. 9.—The proposition to revise the rules of harness racing and make them uniform on all tracks through joint action of committees of the National Trotting Association and

Wilbert Robinson, catcher, batted 348; Dan Braulters, first baseman, 344; Gleason, pitcher, 342; John McGraw, third baseman, 339; Hughie Jennings, shortstop, 332; Keltz and Bonner, second basemen, 306 and 301, and Hawke, pitcher, 201. Lucasville
Squad Beaten

The Waverly second team in basketball played the Lucasville basketball five Friday evening before the P. H. S. Waverly game and Waverly triumphed over the Lucasville five by the score of 23 to 18. Prof. Meeks, formerly of P. H. S. who assisted in coaching the P. H. S. five last year is coach of the Lucasville five. He will bring his team to Portsmouth in a few weeks to play P. H. S.

SURE THE REDS
DID NOT GET HIM

Fans from the far west say that the Reds lost a second Miller Huggins when Grover, a Northwestern league infielder, was taken away from this club through the fortunes of the draft. Several clubs were after this Grover person, but Uncle Connie Mack landed the boy, and put him to work immediately. He played 20 games with the Athletics at the finish of the season, batted 273, and in general acted like a live wire round the middle station.

King Cotton Brings
Joy to Dixie

When the whole world was breathless with panic at the outbreak of war in August, 1914, the cotton farmer of the South saw bankruptcy and poverty nearer on the horizon, perhaps, than many a farmer in the warring countries. Cotton, known as the "king of crops" was dethroned and abased. As if by magic, fourteen months later, cotton on the New York Exchange rose to twenty cents a pound, and the question asked, was not "when will it drop?" but "where will it stop?"

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for December 9th, the wide-sweeping effect of high-priced cotton is explained in a clear and interesting manner.

Editorial reports from every section of the cotton-growing belt are shown. To the "man in the street," who is not familiar with the very strong position which cotton occupies among American products, this account is bound to prove enlightening.

King Cotton's marvelous "come-back" reads almost like a fairy tale. From fields nodding drowsily in white through the summer, he draws royal revenues which he spends with royal profusion in so many various channels that his spending operates for the benefit of the whole country. This is why East, West, and South, everybody is interested in the restoration. There are several illustrations from original photographs.

Besides this important review of the cotton situation, "The Digest" is particularly rich this week in other articles of interest, a few of which are:

Community Service Bureau Will Secure Efficiency

The purposes and aims of the Bureau of Community Service are clearly stated in an interview which Samuel Horchow, member of the general campaign committee issued Saturday, following the circulation of a report that the ten thousand dollars, which is to be raised by popular subscription, next week, was to be used entirely in paying high salaried officers to supervise the work of distributing clothing, food and medical supplies among the indigent families of the community.

"The peculiar conception of the purposes and aims of the Bureau of Community Service, which has been gotten by several citizens, is entirely wrong," said Mr. Horchow. "We intend to raise the ten thousand dollars next week in three days. This money will be used by the organization to get the maximum results from the money expended in social welfare, recreation, charity and tuberculosis work. In other words, the object of the Bureau of Community Service is to centralize the work of the social betterment and charitable organizations of the city with a view of stopping duplication, of assisting worthy families, of determining the causes of poverty and to take steps to eliminate them; to study the health conditions of the city with a view of decreasing the causes of tuberculosis and to get maximum efficiency in all departments which will lead to the betterment of conditions for the community as a whole."

"Organization is the life of business. So should organization be the life of social welfare work. We would not for one minute consider the haphazard methods now employed in charity work as good business sense. Individually the various social welfare organizations are accomplishing much but concentrated, the efficiency would be increased many times and at the same time better results will be obtained."

"The charity work is only one of the many branches which we intend to cover. Of course such an organization takes time to complete, but when it is, the bureau will be of great service to the community."

"The general secretary which will be in charge of the work will save his salary many times each year in systematized work. Careful indexes will be kept and all the information gathered by the organization will be kept here. Duplications will be stopped. Lazy husbands will not find it so easy to gain subsistence for his family from a credulous public. Worthy families will be shown how they may be placed on a self-sustaining basis. Why the scope of the work is unlimited and thousands of dollars will be saved each year not only in charity work but in increased efficiency in work and a general betterment of health."

"The charity relief work of the city, the county, the Anti-Tuberculosis League and the Associated Charities has been seriously hampered because of this lack of co-operation. So the merger of the interests of the two latter organizations has been effected. This action marks an epoch in the history of the community and the benefits that are to be derived will be manifested within a short time."

after the work is started. "We would ask all citizens to get into the spirit of the movement and help boost instead of knock. Come around to our headquarters in the Masonic Temple, rooms 400-426, and have a chat with us. We are going to succeed and we would like to have your assistance."

Today folks are buying furs and are realizing the fact that they will make splendid Christmas presents. Of course we figured on this a long time ago before the big advances were tacked on and consequently we have now a splendid stock of luxurious furs merely awaiting your pleasure.

Black Furs Are Good

Black furs have a considerable call this season and of course we are ready with a good showing, in such popular furs as Lynx, Fox, Cat Lynx, Norelia and Alaska Seal. These come in both muffs and scarfs, the foot ball style being the popular favorite in the muffs. The black scarfs range in price up to $25.00 while the muffs range from $7.50 to $40.00.

Brown Furs and Novelties

Of course Mink will always be good and we now offer pieces in genuine Mink, Jay Mink, Brown Fox and Beaver, all desirable furs in good styles, the muffs ranging from $15.00 to $37.50 while the scarfs range from $15.00 to $60.00.

The popular Leopard Coney, Gray Coney, Raccoon and Opossum are very much in evidence and are considered quite the new thing in furs. A good line of muffs at $7.50 to $20.00.

The Anderson Bros. Co.

added feature at the Lyric. The admission is the same all week, 10c for adults and 5c for children.

Exhibit Theatre

"The Strength of the Weak" is the Bluebird feature drama offered Exhibit patrons today. Mary Fuller, the celebrated screen star, plays the leading role in this extraordinary offering. The story is based on one of the greatest problems plays ever seen on the stage. Pauline D'Arcy is an orphan girl, who has been betrayed by her legal guardian. In later years she falls in love with the son of the man who ruined her. Here is the problem: What could she do under the circumstances, loving the man she did while realizing her youthful mistake? Don't fail to see the problem solved at the Exhibit tonight. All for ten cents.

Watch for the announcement of the next five reel Kolb and Dill comedy.

At The Temple

Manager Potts offers his patrons another seven reel show for ten cents tonight. Two more reels of that gripping serial "The Yellow Menace" will hold your attention riveted to the screen for half an hour. "The Hoodoo of Division II" is one of those ever thrilling Kalem railroad comedies, featuring that daring star, Helen Gibson. Helen prevents a bad smash-up between the "hoodoo" engine and a special. Confused facts and exciting incidents are plentiful. Helen is brought within a few inches of death by her exploits in this play. "Ham and the Masked Marvel" is an exciting Kalem comedy with that great laugh producer Ham in the leading role. Seven big reels for ten cents.

At The Arena

Four big reels are offered Arena patrons by Manager Potts tonight. "Crooked From the Start" is one of those gripping, side-splitting comedies in two reels produced by L. K. The two reels produced by L. K. are the greatest laugh producers shown on the screen today. They are even better than Charlie Chaplin. This is not of the burlesque type, but a clean, wholesome comedy that brings out the laugh from the spirit. The recipients will not mind it is shown on the screen until the end of the picture. "Circumstantial Justice" is a one-reel Laemmle drama of tense interest, one that will grip your interest. "Maiden on U. S. S. 4-5" is a one-reel educational film of nation-wide interest. A splendid bill for only five cents.

Grand Tonight

Tonight will be shown a big five-reel program for 10 cents. Two reels of "Liberty" that, exciting serial with some hard in Mexico and on the Texas border, is the chief attraction. Chapter 22 is shown today. "Liberty" is a special Laemmle drama weeks' illness.

Hurled Rocks Through Windows

John Workman and Clyde Riggs, Lucasville boys, were arrested and taken before Judge Thomas C. Beatty, juvenile court Saturday on a charge of malicious destruction of property. Both were given suspended sentences to the Lancaster Reformatory. The two boys left the Lucasville schools Friday morning, caught a freight and went to Waverly. Returning Friday evening they hurled rocks through a large plate glass window in a store belonging to Ben Yeager, Lucasville, and repeated the act at the John Miles barber shop. One of the rocks struck John Miles on the head, inflicting a slight wound.

That's lumbago, sciatica, or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on and out comes the pain. It is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Lumber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drug store and after using it just once you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt or cause any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years. Stop dragging kidneys! They don't cause backache, because they have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain.

CENTRAL BANK MAILED OUT ITS XMAS CLUB CHECKS

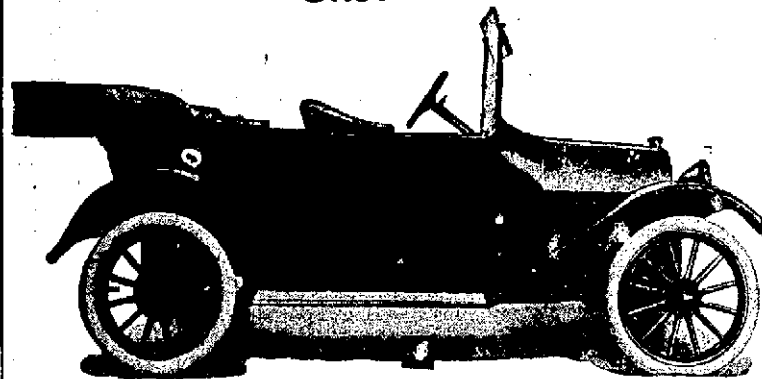

The thousand and more members of the Central National Bank's Christmas Savings Club, will be made happy today when they receive checks calling for the amounts they have saved for their holiday shopping. The checks were sent out to the various members early Saturday morning and practically all of them will be in the hands of the members by not later than Saturday evening.

The total amount saved by the members of the club was a handsome sum, the exact figures not being given out. Many of those who received their checks will use the money with which to purchase Christmas presents for their friends and relatives, while others, seeing what a nice "nest egg" they have accumulated as a result of their thrift, will redeposit the check with the intention, perhaps, of buying themselves a home.

The Central Bank's Christmas Savings Club for 1916 was such a decided success that the bank will continue the proposition indefinitely, and judging from the enthusiasm of the members, the club will be even larger in 1917 than the year just closed. The checks mailed out were beautiful in design, typical of the yuletide spirit. The recipients will not only receive the congratulations of their friends, but are at the same time handing themselves congratulatory words that they are the foresight and wisdom to have by enough money to put them on "easy street" for the glad some Christmas time. The Central National Bank issues the statement that the club for 1917 will again open on December 18. It will remain open for members until the beginning of the New Year.

and Sunday nights at 8 p. m. Captain Raymond is still confined in the hospital where she has been since being so badly burned a few weeks ago.

The captain and his wife have had several years' experience in Salvation Army work and come to Portsmouth highly recommended. They are entering upon their Xmas work immediately and being rather handicapped on account of the unavoidable change so near the Xmas time they will be unable to call on all the Army's friends who have helped in the past, so ask that the donation be sent to the Army quarters, 1023 Chillicothe street, or phone 1029-A and it will be sent for. Make all checks payable to the Salvation Army.

More Organizations Against Sale Of Children's Home Site

Editor of Times—Some time ago when the question of the disposal of the Children's Home grounds was being agitated the Woman's Relief Corps Auxiliary to the G. A. R. took the matter up and passed resolutions which were published, as an appeal to the public in behalf of the preservation of the grounds as a park. Our organization is unanimous in the opinion that same plan should be adopted whereby the problem may be solved and the grounds kept for a park.

Doubtless the county commissioners would welcome a plan suggested by the citizens which would solve their financial difficulties and meet with the approval of the public.

The women of Portsmouth will do their part, co-operating with other citizens, in any movement for civic improvement and the general welfare of Portsmouth.

Our city has a great future and we should consider, carefully, its needs.

It was also decided that the county secretary write the protest to the editor of The Portsmouth Times and to the county commissioners.

Will Not Go After Floor Leadership

Senator W. D. Tremper of this city when asked by The Times Saturday confirmed published reports that he does not desire the new Republican leadership in the upper branch of the general assembly.

The senator said he believed he could secure the floor leadership if he desired it and while it would bring him a certain amount of prominence he said there was a good deal of hard work connected with it and he told Senator Otto Vollenweider, of Vinton county, who is now being tipped as the next floor leader, to "go to it."

He and the Vinton county senator were the only Republicans of the present senate re-elected.

HORNETS DEFEAT A GREAT ARMY

In a certain passage in the bible God said to his people: "I will send hornets before thee, etc." In another chapter we read of the fulfillment of the promise: "I sent hornets before thee and thou didst drive out, not by thy sword nor by thy bow." The armies of the Canaanites could not stand against the hornets. The forty-two centimeters of Germany or big guns of the allies are not so effective as were the little sting-bugs that went before Israel. Let us learn the power of little things.

The United Brethren Sunday school like Israel of old is engaged in a great war; strongly entrenched evils that war against the best interests of men defy us, but God is on our side. If needs be He can send the hornets and we are sure to win.

We are reaping victories now. Last Sunday the "Friendly Fellows" class of young men, of whom Mr. John Voelker is president and Prof. J. F. Yemmer is teacher, was the biggest noise in the army. They furnished the music; a fine chorus; a fine quartet and such funny months made one think of persimmons. The boys are all right and soon will have a hundred in the class. Next Sunday some more surprises from another division of the army. On to victory.

HEAD SO DIZZY COULD NOT STAND

Lady Felt Like Falling at Times on Account of Trouble Which Was Finally Relieved by Cardui.

Nelsonville, Ohio.—"About four years ago," writes Mrs. Minnie Perry, of this town, "I had such spells with my head, I thought I could not live. I tried many different kinds of remedies, but they did me no good. It seemed I got worse, and my head would just get so dizzy, I would fall wherever I was standing, and I could not walk, unless I held up by something. The trouble all seemed to be in my head. About a year ago I saw Cardui, the woman's tonic, advertised and sent for a bottle. I got so much better that I will help you, too."

used three bottles, and I gladly say I have never had any more trouble with my head. I can work hard all day now, and get up the next morning as bright and strong as ever. I know that Cardui saved my life, and I recommend it to other women who suffer, for I am sure it will help them, if they will only try it." Do you feel dizzy, weak, nervous, headachy, and run-down, generally? These are sure symptoms of womanly disorders, and should be given prompt attention. Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui has helped over a million weak women in the past 50 years. It

THE BOARD OF TRADE

Stress was laid on the fact, at Thursday evening's banquet of the board of trade that the membership of the organization was numerically far below what it should be. It was stress well and timely placed because there is no question the membership should be at least twice as large as it is.

The importance of the board to the development and welfare of the city needs little demonstration. There must be vigilant, a capable body to seize upon the opportunities for growth and betterment as they present themselves and advantage them to the city. To depend on the rising up of some volunteer activity with the coming of each opportunity would be utterly preposterous. The desirability, the necessity of the board from this standpoint we do not mean to argue here. Rather would we now point out how pleasant, how profitable it is in assembling in common association and good will such a splendid body of men as that gathered at the Washington on the occasion mentioned. That is an inspiration, we might say, a blessing in itself. We do not know what was the underlying cause, perhaps, the unconscious thought that we were enjoying peace and prosperity, while a great part of the world was in misery and strife, but no matter as to that. On everyone's tongue there was the one expression that there was more fellowship and more enthusiasm than had ever before been displayed at a similar gathering. So that was really the thing that made it worth while. Men laid aside their cares, they put away their antipathies and assembled in good fellowship, enthused by a fine civic pride in the city that is expanding so rapidly that only occasionally do we take on some proper conception of her progress. It was a Portsmouth crowd that was for Portsmouth all the way through and mighty proud and glad it was. It was worth while to any citizen to have been there. Pity 'tis there were not more, especially when it is considered that membership in the board is open to all.

THE ARMOR PLATE PLANT

The proposal that Portsmouth go after the government armor plate plant, that supposedly will be located far inland, was received by the board of trade banqueters with tremendous applause, an active, aggressive committee was appointed to have special charge of presenting the city's claim and there is no doubt about Portsmouth being in the contest for the great prize to win.

It is undoubtedly a prize worth putting forth every effort to secure. Eleven million dollars have been appropriated for the construction of the plant and it will employ an army of skilled workmen. It is the best industry any town can secure because there will never be any doubt about the solvency of the ownership and ability to keep it going. When Uncle Sam goes bankrupt we can all just as well close shop.

We believe, in fact every citizen must go to bed and rise with the belief, that Portsmouth is most ideally situated for the location of the plant. She is rather midway between the coal fields and the iron mines. She is located on a navigable stream and she has great railroad systems that connect directly with the great ship building and repair shops of the country. In truth there is none to compare with her in this latter respect. We needn't say more, just now, however. The interests of the city are in capable hands, the spirit of Portsmouth is holding them up and as we said, it is going to be a fight to win.

THE BUREAU OF PUBLIC SERVICE

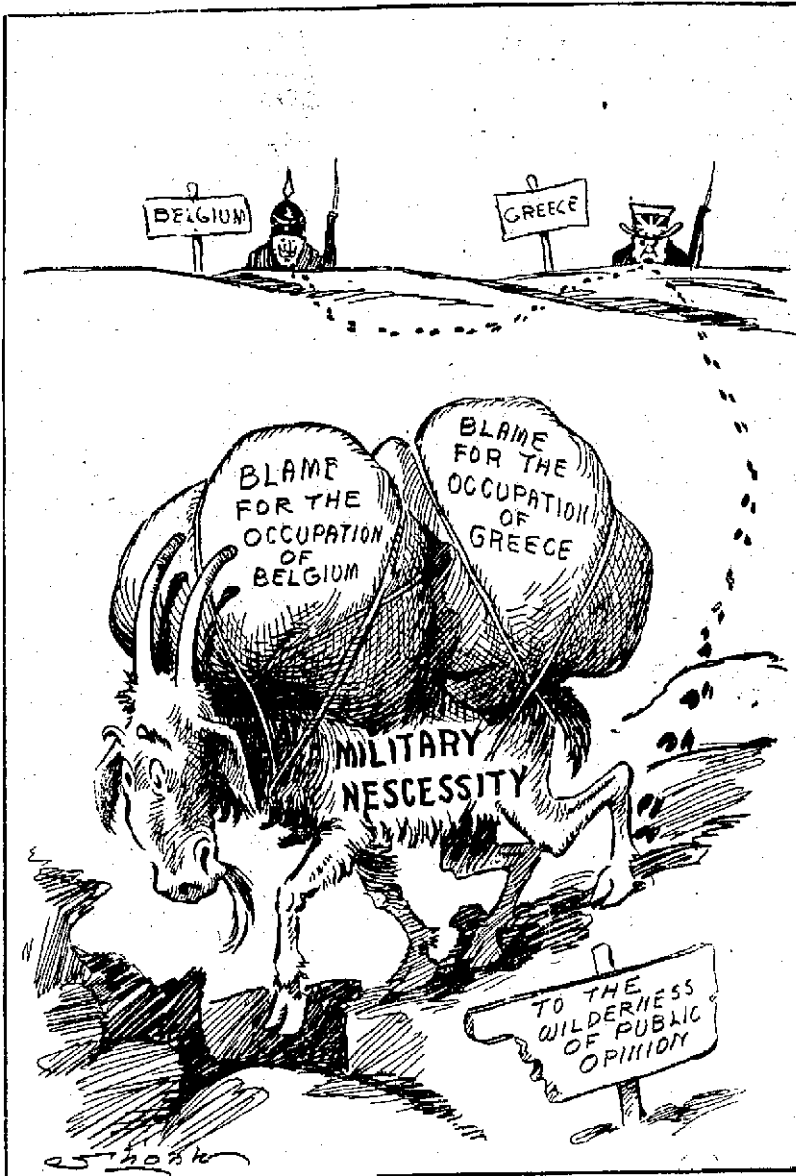

Earnest men are enlisting and devoting their valuable time and energies for several days to make the proposed organization of the bureau of public service a success, and though success must be predicated upon the raising of ten thousand dollars in the short space of three days, their faith in the kindness and liberality of the people of Portsmouth is such that they are unwavering in their faith that it will come.

May be it is not inopportune to speak a word here of the purposes and spirit that it is proposed to give the bureau of public service. It is not to be a charity movement as the word charity ordinarily implies. True it will minister immediate relief and care to the destitute and the helpless sick, but its mission is to go deeper and farther into the fields of real charity. It will try to get down to the origin and cause of poverty and disease and remove the cause of them. It will teach the helpless how to help themselves, it will eliminate those conditions that provoke disorders. It is going to be a common welfare association. It will relieve to some extent those who have to give by eliminating waste, useless and duplicate giving; it will benefit those in need by showing them ways and instilling energy to meet their own needs. In a word it is going to make a brighter and better Portsmouth, a pleasanter place to live in because the sources of destitution and ill will be removed to the largest extent possible and the unfortunate helped to more fortunate condition.

To raise the necessary funds will require a general responsibility; it is expected that every individual will help to the extent of his ability, be that much or little.

We needed the rain and then it serves another purpose. The oldest inhabitant doesn't stop us on the street to tell us we had another winter just like this back in the fifties, way back.

THE GOAT

THE LAND OF FABULOUS FORTUNES

Statistics given out by the federal internal revenue commissioners give more than a hint of the growth of fabulous fortunes in this country. In the past year the number of persons whose annual income is over a million dollars, has just doubled, that is risen from 60 to 120. In addition there are 329 individuals having a yearly income of five hundred thousand dollars or over.

All persons, unmarried, having an income of $3,000 and all those married with income of $4,000 must pay an income tax. In this class there has been a tremendous increase. Yet there will be many belonging to it that even the argus eye of the tax-gatherer will never catch, because their humble positions and modest earnings heretofore never having attracted attention to them. But if Uncle Sam does catch them doing the dodging act it will surely be a sad day with them. The safest way if your income reaches the taxation is to take the little bitler along with the big sweet and walk up to the captain's office and settle right away. Dallying with federal publicans is a dangerous business.

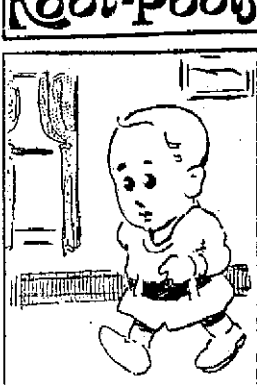

Unconscious humor most excites the risibles. A delightful instance was furnished at the board of trade banquet, when the secretary, after announcing the choice for directors, on which there was a contest, concluded, "the president and the other candidates, having no opposition were also elected." The banqueters caught the point instantly and never did such a spontaneous and simultaneous roar go up from a crowd. Actually it looked like Will Briggs, Will Hazlebeck and all the other Wills and Georges and Johns would throw fits. And the secretary wondered what it was all about. Those on whom the joke was didn't but they tried their best to look as though they enjoyed it.

The Bluefield Telegraph insists the Democrats should not complain about the raw deal the Hatfield legislature gave them when it might have so easily made it worse. This sarcasm is all right, but sarcasm wrecks parties as well as it ruins individuals.

In the east the rage for preparedness was started and yet, only a week ago, sailors were refused a seat in a movie because they were in uniform, the ushers saying they could not afford to drive away their "decent" patrons by having them sit by persons in such clothes. That's patriotism for you—the uniform an insult.

They all caught the habit. The Republican publicity bureau, which was accused of squandering a million, shows it spent only about half of that sum, but it confesses a deficit of a hundred thousand. Wall Street contributed what was taken in and the hat will be passed to it to make good the balance.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.
 O.O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Dec. 9.—Fred C. Kelly, the Washington correspondent, is in New York before he begins his winter toil at the capital. I ran across him the other evening at church and I don't know which was the more surprised. He asked me if I expected to see a couple of clog dancers as an addendum to the regular services but to become the frock coat I wore I did not resort to his lowly persiflage.

Kelly used to be the best Xenia correspondent that a certain paper in Dayton, Ohio, ever had. In fact, you may go to Xenia today—if you care for such trips—and almost anyone there will remember Kelly. It was my intention to work this around so that when you arrived in Xenia you could inquire: "Has anybody here seen Kelly?" but I find the wheeze is impossible of accomplishment.

And besides you may decide not to take the trip and the effort would be wasted. Anyway we dropped up to the Majestic for a bite to eat and then hunted up Ray Rohn, the famous spendthrift, to take us to the theatre on the next evening.

We found him and the next night he took us—as far as the box office and he either had one way pockets or they were lined with fishhooks for after taking a vote it was decided to let Kelly buy the seats. His was the only dissenting vote or it would have been unanimous.

It was an Ibsen play we saw and coming out a young girl in front said to her companion: "Don't you just love Ibsen? Doesn't he just take all the hope out of life?"

A hero has been found in New York. Fontaine Fox, the cartoonist, discovered him. He is the fellow who has the nerve to eat the sandwich they serve on Sunday with a glass of beer.

MUNITION PLANT IS WRECKED RUMANIANS STILL IN RETREAT

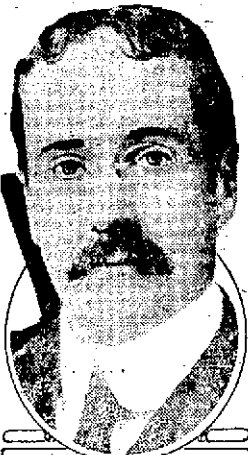

TEUTONS ADVANCE ON BIG FRONT

New York, Dec. 9.—Pursuit of the retreating Russian and Rumanian forces in Eastern Wallachia by Field Marshal Von Mackensen continues, but how far the Teutonic advance has progressed is not made clear in the latest official statement.

Berlin chronicles the continuation of the advance along the whole front and Petrograd says the Russians and Rumanians have been retreating since the evacuation of the Rumanian capital.

Seemingly the retreating defense of Rumanian soil are offering little resistance and are endeavoring to reach the line of the Danube river before the Austro-Germans can break through the Moldavian frontier and cut their rear or the Bulgarians and Germans can cross the Danube and reach Tchernavoda and outflank it. However, there has been little activity either on the Transylvanian-Moldavian frontier or in Dobruja. The Germans have repulsed a Russian attack in the Trotus valley and the Russians report the checking of a Russian movement in the Otuz valley. Petrograd says all has been quiet in Dobruja and along the Danube.

Representatives Of Oppressed Nations To Present Protests

Washington, D. C., Dec. 9.—Representatives of 16 minor European nations suffering in the war will present protests at a conference of national or dependent nationalities to be held here tomorrow and the day following the woman's peace party meeting, which held its sessions today.

The nationalities to be heard tomorrow and their spokesmen are: Irish, Francis Hackett, New York; Belgian, Henri Lafontaine, Brussels; Jews, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, New York. The conference was called by the American delegation of the woman congress after the war, headed by Miss Jane Adams.

INVESTIGATORS TO ATTEND THE ELGIN BOARD MEETING

Chicago, Dec. 9.—In pursuing its inquiry into food prices United States District Attorney Clegg sent investigators to Elgin today to attend the meeting of the board of trade, which organization fixes the price of butter that is said to be in largely sales throughout the country.

At the United States attorney's office it was said that the egg price of Chicago is controlled by the board and that a duplicate set of books has been kept by several large warehouses.

Took It to Herself.
There was a short, rotund woman standing in one of the ample doorways of the capitol, and there were other women about her. The short, rotund woman, however, was conspicuously present. A courteous senator came along with a couple of friends and remarked:
"I guess that we can get around this crowd."
"Don't you call me a crowd!" indignantly shouted the rotund woman, and the senator went on, smiling, but saying nothing. Detroit Free Press.

AMERICAN PROTEST FAILS TO HALT DEPORTATION

Havre, France, Dec. 9.—Five hundred judges and members of the Belgian bar, notable among whom are the judges of the Court of Cassation of Brussels, the court of Appeals and the Courts of Commerce, have signed a protest to General Von Blissing, the military governor of Belgium, against the deportations of Belgians as in "contempt of natural rights, of the statute law and of the law of nations."

Washington, D. C., Dec. 9.—The American government's formal protest to Germany against the deportation of Belgians for forced labor as a violation of the principles of humanity was made public today by the state department. It was in the form of a note, cabled to Charge Grey, at Berlin, with instructions that he seek an interview with the German chancellor and read it to him and was given out by the department with the terse comment:
"The interview has taken place."

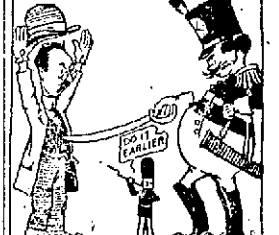

Officials refused to add to this statement, and so far as could be learned there has been no reply from Germany. All information available, however, indicates that the deportations are continuing and it is known that through earlier informal representations Charge Grey learned that the German position was that the policy was a military necessity and not in violation of international law.

LED IN THE SLAUGHTER

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 9.—The first newspaper printed in Chihuahua City after its recapture by Carranza forces reached the border today with additional details of the fighting against Villa and a story of the atrocities committed there by the bandits.
Villa's occupation of Chihuahua City, the paper says, was "an era of crimes and assassinations. Among the murdered were many soldiers' wives who remained with their husbands through the battle. Bandit Uribi, the 'car cutter,' led in the slaughter."

LLOYD-GEORGE CABINET WILL BE NON-PARTISAN

London, Dec. 9.—Lloyd George's cabinet will be non-partisan and will meet the popular demand for a business government. It will not be a coalition cabinet in the sense of Asquith's administration, because Mr. Asquith had the co-operation of all parties.

Here's an advance peek at fashion's decree for the forthcoming bathing season at the popular California and Florida winter resorts. Some startling creations in headgear are on the list. Bare legs will not be permitted.

DECISION ON MOTION IN TEST CASE MAY BE ANNOUNCED MONDAY

Washington, D. C., Dec. 9.—The the Adams case. The court was not in session today. The justices, however, were to confer, and it was believed they would consider the motion to expedite hearing of the Missouri, Oklahoma and Gulf railroad case, testing the validity of December 18.

CANNOT FILE A SUBSTITUTE SCHEDULE

Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 9.—Trunk line railroads operating in West Virginia are denied the privilege of filing a substitute schedule of demurrage rates. In become effective in less than the statutory period of thirty days by a decision of the state public service commission. The decision resulted from a petition which was filed by the railroads for a substitute to a schedule filed some time ago and suspended pending hearing.

The mullein has had many uses. The Romans dipped the stalk into tallow and used it as a funeral torch. In the middle ages it was used as a candle wick by many people. It is reputed to have medicinal virtues for both man and beast, smoking dry mullein leaves and drinking mullein tea being resorted to by those having colds. It won in England by reason of its reputation as a healer of cattle diseases the name of "chaffock lungwort."—National Geographic Magazine.

This mullein, with a number of practical business men in other positions, is considered to make a strong showing. Premier Lloyd George's program is for the reorganization of the country for war on a sweeping socialistic basis, and the general comment is that only a cabinet of super men can accomplish and conduct such a revolution. In addition to the nationalization of shipping, mines and agriculture, drastic reforms in the drink problem and the temporary settlement of the chaos in Ireland are discussed as the major tasks confronting the new administration in the house field. The appointment of Mr. Balfour and Lord Robert Cecil to the foreign office is welcomed in the London press.

London, Dec. 9.—Lloyd George's cabinet will be non-partisan and will meet the popular demand for a business government. It will not be a coalition cabinet in the sense of Asquith's administration, because Mr. Asquith had the co-operation of all parties.

The Liberal meeting at the Reform Club yesterday decided that the old Liberal leaders will constitute an opposition party in the House of Commons, although the opposition will be one of helpful criticism, rather than of hostility.

A surprise was the announcement made by Viscount Grey in the Liberal conference that Arthur Balfour would succeed him in the foreign office, with Lord Robert Cecil continuing as assistant. Lord Curzon qualified by former service in the foreign office and with a brilliant record as Indian viceroy, had been thought assured of the honor. Bonar Law for chancellor of the exchequer is a popular selection, as he combines business and political experience as do few other public men. Equal approval is given to Lord Derby as head of the war office and Dr. Addison as the minister of munitions, but the proposal of Sir Edward Carson for the admiralty finds less favor. Lord Curzon will have one of the highest posts and will be leader of the government in the House of Lords.

BERLIN SENDS ANSWER ON SINKING OF SEEBECK; CARRIED NO LIGHTS

Berlin, Dec. 9.—The German answer to the American inquiry regarding the sinking of the Seebeck has been dispatched to Washington. The steamer Seebeck, according to German information, was steaming without lights of any indication of its nationality in the immediate vicinity of a hostile naval port and there were no means of distinguishing it from an enemy warship.

No details in regard to the sinking of the Seebeck have been received here and available shipping records do not list the vessel.

Speculators Cause Of The Car Shortage Says B. & O. Official

Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 9.—The present shortage of cars is not due to a lack of equipment, but to speculators holding the cars loaded, and to increased business, asserted Arthur W. Thompson, of Baltimore, vice president of the B. & O. railroad, today.

INSIST ON SPEED IN REORGANIZATION OF CONDUCT OF THE WAR

Paris, Dec. 9.—The popular demand that the reorganization of the conduct of the war promised by the Thursday vote in the chamber of deputies, be both rapid and radical has received further stimulus by the events in England and is becoming more outspoken and more insistent, says Stephen Pinchon, writing in the Petit Journal.

P. H. S. "Floor Squad" Opens Season By Beating Waverly

Local Quintet Had To Exert Themselves To Turn The Trick

P. H. S. 1916-17 basketball five won their first game of the season Friday evening when they beat the Waverly high school quintet by a score of 31 to 23.

The Red and Blue team returned home disappointed because they did not turn up a bigger score, but claim that when Waverly plays on the local floor they will smother them. The locals claim they were not dealt with fairly by Dr. Metzger, coach of the Waverly team who refereed the game. In the first half of the game he called 7 fouls on Stumway, P. H. S. guard who is one of the most careful players in the game. A number of fouls were called on other players and eleven of the 23 points made by Waverly were on fouls.

P. H. S. had 7 chances to score on fouls and Guy Edwards, local forward, playing his first P. H. S. game, shot all 7, the ball not touching the rim of the basket. Edwards played a star game and has won a regular position on the first team. The game was hard fought, the locals having to fight hard for every point.

Between halves Coach Trout of the locals had a conference with referee Metzger and after showing the Waverly coach the rule book the second half of the game was played without fouls being called on the locals. The Waverly boys after the game, admitted that P. H. S. had not been given a fair chance by the referee who is a new man at Waverly.

Bauman, captain of the locals, started the season by making seven field baskets. The lineups:

THE BOARD OF TRADE

Stress was laid on the fact, at Thursday evening's banquet of the board of trade that the membership of the organization was numerically far below what it should be. It was stress well and timely placed because there is no question the membership should be at least twice as large as it is.

The importance of the board to the development and welfare of the city needs little demonstration. There must be vigilant, a capable body to seize upon the opportunities for growth and betterment as they present themselves and advantage them to the city. To depend on the rising up of some volunteer activity with the coming of each opportunity would be utterly preposterous. The desirability, the necessity of the board from this standpoint we do not mean to argue here. Rather would we now point out how pleasant, how profitable it is in assembling in common association and good will such a splendid body of men as that gathered at the Washington on the occasion mentioned. That is an inspiration, we might say, a blessing in itself. We do not know what was the underlying cause, perhaps, the unconscious thought that we were enjoying peace and prosperity, while a great part of the world was in misery and strife, but no matter as to that. On everyone's tongue there was the one expression that there was more fellowship and more enthusiasm than had ever before been displayed at a similar gathering. So that was really the thing that made it worth while. Men laid aside their cares, they put away their antipathies and assembled in good fellowship, enthused by a fine civic pride in the city that is expanding so rapidly that only occasionally do we take on some proper conception of her progress. It was a Portsmouth crowd that was for Portsmouth all the way through and mighty proud and glad it was. It was worth while to any citizen to have been there. Pity 'tis there were not more, especially when it is considered that membership in the board is open to all.

THE ARMOR PLATE PLANT

The proposal that Portsmouth go after the government armor plate plant, that supposedly will be located far inland, was received by the board of trade banqueters with tremendous applause, an active, aggressive committee was appointed to have special charge of presenting the city's claim and there is no doubt about Portsmouth being in the contest for the great prize to win.

It is undoubtedly a prize worth putting forth every effort to secure. Eleven million dollars have been appropriated for the construction of the plant and it will employ an army of skilled workmen. It is the best industry any town can secure because there will never be any doubt about the solvency of the ownership and ability to keep it going. When Uncle Sam goes bankrupt we can all just as well close shop.

We believe, in fact every citizen must go to bed and rise with the belief, that Portsmouth is most ideally situated for the location of the plant. She is rather midway between the coal fields and the iron mines. She is located on a navigable stream and she has great railroad systems that connect directly with the great ship building and repair shops of the country. In truth there is none to compare with her in this latter respect. We needn't say more, just now, however. The interests of the city are in capable hands, the spirit of Portsmouth is such that they are unwavering in their faith that it will come.

THE BUREAU OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Earnest men are enlisting and devoting their valuable time and energies for several days to make the proposed organization of the bureau of public service a success, and though success must be predicated upon the raising of ten thousand dollars in the short space of three days, their faith in the kindness and liberality of the people of Portsmouth is such that they are unwavering in their faith that it will come.

May be it is not inopportune to speak a word here of the purposes and spirit that it is proposed to give the bureau of public service. It is not to be a charity movement as the word charity ordinarily implies. True it will minister immediate relief and care to the destitute and the helpless sick, but its mission is to go deeper and farther into the fields of real charity. It will try to get down to the origin and cause of poverty and disease and remove the cause of them. It will teach the helpless how to help themselves, it will eliminate those conditions that provoke disorders. It is going to be a common welfare association. It will relieve to some extent those who have to give by eliminating waste, useless and duplicitous giving; it will benefit those in need by showing them ways and instilling energy to meet their own needs. In a word it is going to make a brighter and better Portsmouth, a pleasanter place to live in because the sources of destitution and ill will be removed to the largest extent possible and the unfortunate helped to more fortunate condition.

To raise the necessary funds will require a general responsibility; it is expected that every individual will help to the extent of his ability, be that much or little.

We needed the rain and then it serves another purpose. The latest inhabitant doesn't stop on the street to tell us we had another winter just like this back in the fifties, way back.

THE GOAT

THE LAND OF FABULOUS FORTUNES

Statistics given out by the federal internal revenue commissioners give more than a hint of the growth of fabulous fortunes in this country. In the past year the number of persons whose annual income is over a million dollars, has just doubled, that is risen from 60 to 120. In addition there are 329 individuals having a yearly income of five hundred thousand dollars or over.

All persons, unmarried, having an income of $3,000 and all those married with income of $4,000 must pay an income tax. In this class there has been a tremendous increase. Yet there will be many belonging to it that even the argus eye of the tax-gatherer will never catch, because their humble positions and modest earnings heretofore never having attracted attention to them. But if Uncle Sam does catch them doing this dodging act it will surely be a sad day with them. The safest way if your income reaches the taxation is to take the little bitter along with the big sweet and walk up to the captain's office and settle right away. Dallying with federal publicans is a dangerous business.

Unconscious humor most excites the risibles. A delightful instance was furnished at the board of trade banquet, when the secretary, after announcing the choice for directors, on which there was a contest, concluded, "the president and the other candidates, having no opposition were also elected." The banqueters caught the point instantly and never did such a spontaneous and simultaneous roar go up from a crowd. Actually it looked like Will Briggs, Will Hazzlebeck and all the other Wills and Georges and Johns would throw fits. And the secretary wondered what it was all about. Those on whom the joke was didn't but they tried their best to look as though they enjoyed it.

The Bluefield Telegraph insists the Democrats should not complain about the raw deal the Hatfield legislature gave them when it might have so easily made it worse. This sarcasm is all right, but sarcasm wrecks parties as well as it ruins individuals.

In the east the rage for preparedness was started and yet, only a week ago, sailors were refused a seat in a movie because they were in uniform, the ushers saying they could not afford to drive away their "decent" patrons by having them sit by persons in such clothes. That's patriotism for you—the uniform an insult.

They all caught the habit. The Republican publicity bureau, which was accused of squandering a million, shows it spent only about half of that sum, but it confesses a deficit of a hundred thousand. Wall Street contributed what was taken in and the hat will be passed to it to make good the balance.

The purpose of this organization is to get maximum efficiency in all social welfare work.

More Organizations Against Sale Of Children's Home Site

Editor of Times:—Some time ago when the question of the disposal of the Children's Home grounds was being agitated the Woman's Relief Corps Auxiliary to the G. A. R. took the matter up and passed resolutions which were published, as an appeal to the public in behalf of the preservation of the grounds as a park. Our organization is unanimous in the opinion that same plan should be adopted whereby the problem may be solved and the grounds kept for a park.

Doubtless the county commissioners would welcome a plan suggested by the citizens which would solve their financial difficulties and meet with the approval of the public.

The women of Portsmouth will do their part, co-operating with other citizens, in any movement for civic improvement and the general welfare of Portsmouth.

Our city has a great future and we should consider carefully its needs.

How to Find Opportunities Through Want Ads

— NC. 22. —

Want Ads Organize Building and Loan Societies

A dozen or more families, contemplating building, may finance one another at remarkably low interest rates. It is not necessary to form a stock company, but those concerned may get together on a mutual basis, negotiate loans, buy and sell property, erect buildings and handle mortgages.

A union of investors can achieve much more than the same number of individuals operating separately.

Here are two suggestions for Want Ads of this character:

WANT AD FOR MUTUAL INVESTMENT SOCIETY.

LOANS ON PROPERTY AT LOW interest rate without commission. A number of property owners and prospective buyers have organized for mutual protection and support. For particulars, address AT 0012.

WANT AD FOR PERSON SEEKING PROPERTY LOANS.

I WANT $2,000 ON IMPROVED property at 12% interest. Will pay this money to construct residence or unimproved vacant property. Or will give lender opportunity to join me in constructing home and full building. Good location. Address

Want Ads Open Many Avenues of Profit

Many property owners can get together in a way satisfactory to all. They may band together in constructing office, store or apartment buildings, and through careful administration of funds, can make maximum profit. Co-operation, also, gives them opportunities of buying materials and getting contracts at the lowest rates.

To property owners of all kinds,

The police received a telegram Friday night from the Michigan state prison authorities at Jackson, confirming reports that R. L. Wills, alias Carr, alias Holland, suspected motorcycle thief under arrest here, is wanted there.

The message stated that Wills was wanted for violation of parole and that an officer would be sent after him at once to take him back to the Jackson penitentiary, where he served sentence for incest. A photograph also received from the Michigan authorities show the man in custody here to be the same person.

Wills proved his own undoing by displaying a disposition to talk with fellow prisoners at the police station. He confided to them that he was a parole violator and was wanted at Jackson, Mich. Acting upon a tip one of the prisoners gave them the police, promptly wired to Jackson.

Wills also boasted to the other prisoners that he had stolen fully 100 automobiles in different parts of the country. He also told them of having disposed of several stolen cars in Portsmouth.

When questioned by the police officials Wills was careful not to incriminate himself. He claimed that the motorcycle, which he is accused of stealing, was purchased by him in Kentucky. The motorcycle belonged to R. E. Hughes, a young farmer of Prospect, Marion county, Ohio.

The police officials firmly believe that Wills has a Ford car somewhere in Portsmouth right now which he had expected to dispose of, but he is too smooth to reveal its hiding place. A local dealer who dropped around at headquarters Friday evening to take a look at the prisoner, recognized him as a man who had been in his place several times for automobile parts.

EASY WAY TO GET A DIVORCE

Back in the days when Babylon was a power among the nations of the world, they did not have divorce courts. Each man was his own judge and when he tired of his wife, he just sent her away. This curious fact was brought to light in a set of ancient laws, which was found by Attorney E. G. Miller.

Relative to divorces, the Babylon code of Hammurabi says: "When a man will put away his wife, the form of doing it shall be by taking the keys of the house and giving her what she brought. This shall be the manner of a divorce."

Senator W. D. Tremper of this city when asked by The Times Saturday confirmed published reports that he does not desire the new Republican leadership in the upper branch of the general assembly.

The senator said he believed he could secure the floor leadership if he desired it and while it would bring him a certain amount of prominence he said there was a good deal of hard work connected with it and he told Senator Otto Vollenweider, of Vinton county, who is now being tipped as the next floor leader, to "go to it."

WANTS EASIER METHOD OF AMENDING THE U. S. CONSTITUTION

Washington, Dec. 9.—A joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment for an easier method of amending the constitution was introduced today by Representative Chandler of New York.

It provides submission of any proposed amendment by a majority of the voters in a majority of the states. For ratification it would be necessary also to receive an aggregate majority of all votes cast in the United States. Conventions would be held every three years to consider proposed amendments. Mr. Chandler said the present method of amending the constitution is archaic, cumbersome and undemocratic.

SEVERAL ARE DROWNED, REPORT

A big touring car plunged off the viaduct over Millbrook park lake a few minutes ago and several of the occupants are reported to have been drowned.

Clarence Wood, a contractor, telephoned to The Times at 10:30 that one of his foremen who was working near, said that only a small boy escaped and that the rest were pinned under the machine and drowned.

To Discuss Conditions

At the Sunday morning service of the Bureau of Community Service, the first Baptist church Rev. B. F. He will present some of the facts in the recent social survey.

HORNETS DEFEAT A GREAT ARMY

In a certain passage in the bible God said to his people: "I will send hornets before thee, etc." In another chapter we read of the fulfillment of the promise: "I sent hornets before thee and thou didst drive out, not by thy sword nor by thy bow." The armies of the Canaanites could not stand against the hornets. The forty-two centuries of Germany or Austria, the allies are not so effective as were the little stinging insects that went before Israel. Let us learn the power of little things. The United Brethren Sunday school like Israel of old is engaged in a great war; strongly entrenched evils that war against victory.

The best interests of men defy us, but God is on our side. If we will, He can send the hornets and we are sure to win.

We are reading victories now. Last Sunday the "Friendly Fellowship" class of young men, of whom Mr. John Voelker is president and Prof. J. F. Yemmer is teacher, was the biggest noise in the army. They furnished the two centimeters of Germany or Austria, the allies are not so effective as were the little stinging insects that went before Israel. Let us learn the power of little things. The United Brethren Sunday school like Israel of old is engaged in a great war; strongly entrenched evils that war against victory.

BUZZ, BUZZ, BUZZ, ZIP

Have you read about the hornets as resistless as the armies of ants? Can you tell the chapter Mackensen and Falkenhayn; now and verse, and how many times the hornets are mentioned in the bible? What armies did they defeat? The United Brethren Sunday school is busy as a hive of bees, humming. Don't forget, U. B. S. They are working day and night in the great year's campaign for hundreds. Buzz, Buzz, Buzz.

AUTO AND STREET CAR IN COLLISION

A touring car belonging to Charles Hill, of the Portsmouth Hotel, was standing at the curb when a northbound street car crashed into the rear of his machine.
